ACDC – October, Report

Important Diary Dates

Auburn Resilience Meeting

Saturday 17th October 10am-11am Auburn Institute. Open to community groups and residents.

Auburn Community "Streetscape" Meeting

Thursday 22nd October 7pm Auburn Institute. Open to all residents. See more details below.

The ACDC AGM; On Monday night, saw the retirement of Secretary, Peter Newman and executive committee member, Hellen Riley.

As Chair and also on behalf of the committee, thank you to Peter and Hellen for your contributions to our executive committee and the community.

We welcome two new members to the ACDC team - Michelle Kandiliotis and Alana Crosisca. The ACDC team is Rhonda Seymour Chair, David Kilpatrick Secretary, Kate Young Treasurer, and executive committee members Graham Richards, Rob Tilley, Michelle Kandiliotis and Alana Crosisca. ACDC's new Public Officer is Kathy Adams.

Membership: Over the last twelve months, ACDC has seen an increase in membership with new residents joining. Welcome to all new members. Subcommittees and Terms of Reference: The ACDC subcommittees of U2KIDS, Auburn Institute Management Committee, Old Council Chambers on St. Vincent Street have continued their activities with energy and commitment and are thanked for the role they play in supporting and growing our community.

Terms of Reference: ACDC has now developed a generic Terms of Reference, covering all areas of management, to be tailored for any subcommittee within ACDC.

An Addendum will be developed alongside each Terms of Reference, with specific details unique to that subcommittee.

Community Meetings: ACDC organised community meetings between October 2025 and February 2026,

These well-attended meetings were a good opportunity for networking and collaborating with our community groups, in identifying potential projects for the Auburn Community Grant Program. We thank Greg Anderson, an Auburn community member, for undertaking the facilitator role for these meetings. Many volunteer hours were 'chalked up' during this period.

Grants: In the last Year, ACDC has had several successful grant applications:

- Council's Community Asset Grant for the community digital notice board

- Heritage SA Grant for stonework restoration at the old Council Chambers on St. Vincent Street.

- Council's Auburn Community Grants, (funds from the sale of the Auburn /Clare RSL building) for a toilet and waste system, furniture and air conditioner, and a contribution to the stone restoration project, for the Council Chambers on St. Vincent Street and the bike track project at Auburn Recreation Park.

Constitution: The Constitution for this Association was submitted to Consumer and Business Services (CBS) earlier this year after receiving an offer for a free review by CBS which came to ACDC via Council. The report we received from CBS highlighted a few clauses to be updated and a few that could be improved. So, some hours of work were undertaken by our dedicated team, resulting in the proposed Constitution. The Constitution was 'accepted' at the ACDC AGM.

Memorial Place: Memorial Place redevelopment was completed with the installation of the handrail on the steps and the 'sponsorship' plaque. The subcommittee was thanked for their efforts on this project and the subcommittee was wound up. The remaining funds have been quarantined within ACDC for future maintenance and/or additional features for Memorial Place.

Christmas Eve in the Park: The Christmas Eve in the Park event for 2025 was a great success with many families gathering together to enjoy that special time of the year. Planning for the 2026 event will soon be underway. This event continues to be a collaboration with the Auburn Business and Tourism Association.

Council Acknowledgement: I acknowledge the financial support Council has provided to ACDC through Peak Body funding and its Grant programs.

Thank you and your efforts are appreciated:

On behalf of ACDC, I thank Kim Bleeker for his work as Editor of the Auburn Express; Kay Lambert for the monthly History Column; Wayne Butcher for financial checking; ACDC executive committee members for their support throughout the year; the subcommittees and working group members for their time and efforts.

Volunteers: I would also like to acknowledge the efforts of the volunteers who support the many community groups in the Auburn community, in all they do to help make Auburn a great place to live.

Information from subcommittees:

Auburn Institute Management Committee: undertaken painting and repairs, new speakers and storage for 'tech' equipment, successful SALA exhibition, a recent increase in hiring of the facilities, social events will be planned in the future.

Council Chambers on St. Vincent Street: raising funds for annual expenses, Gifting of chairs from Skillogalee Winery, submission of grant applications, exploring how to bring the community together at this building, 2025 Twilight Christmas Market and a second planned for 2026, pop-up markets, abundance market in the new year, heritage and cultural walks/morning tea.

St. Vincent Street Rose Garden Group: This group has been in operation for many years, with volunteers meeting weekly at times, to dead-head, prune, mulch, water, etc, the rose gardens which add brightness and cheer to our streetscape.

U2KIDS: Events and projects underway for our youth, by our youth: bike track project, town map showing activities and places to visit for kids, pine cone collection and selling at CWA shop, Recreation Park and Centenary Park 10c bottles/can collections, movie nights, barbeques, Halloween trick or treat, Santas Cave and Christmas Eve in the Park Event, CWA Flea market stall, Rising Sun meat tray raffles. Sooo Busy, and a lot of the work is undertaken by the kids!

Rhonda Seymour, Chair.

Auburn's History Column:

Mary Ann Adams – KUDNARTO

If you read the August Edition of the Auburn Express 2026 about the Skillogalee murder, you will have noticed that an indigenous woman Mary Ann Adams was a witness.

The above photo of a plaque on the Memorial Wall at the northern entrance to Clare has been installed by ZONTA. The plaque reads: -

K U D N A R T O

Mary Ann Adams
Born in about 1832, died on February 11, 1855 aged approximately 23 years.

Kaurna woman, Kudnarto, from the Crystal Brook area, whose marriage to a white man was the first sanctioned mixed marriage in South Australia.

She settled in Auburn and became the first Aboriginal woman in the region to be allocated a parcel of land under the Protector of Aborigines.

Kudnarto led the way for Kaurna woman in particular and all indigenous people in general to face European culture on equal terms.

ZONTA WOMEN'S HONOUR ROLL
PLACED DECEMBER 1, 2010

In the SBS TV series "Who Do You Think You Are" Michael O'Loughlin, former Australian Rules Football legend, a Sydney Swans champion and premiership player, traced his lineage to great-great-great-great grandmother Kudnarto, the first South Australian indigenous woman to marry a colonist in 1848.

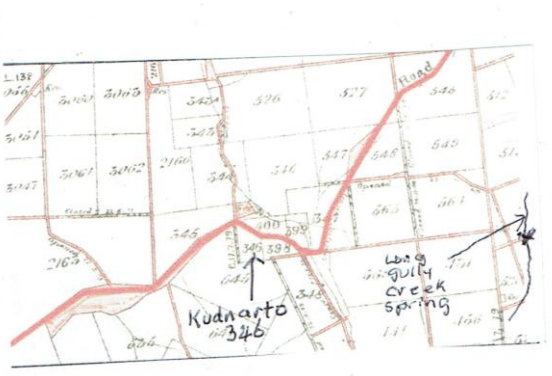

Michael O'Loughlin, a great deal is written about him on the internet.

In the 1850's Court Case regarding the murder in the Skilly, Mary Ann Adams stated she had seen the dead man in the bush. Mary Ann Adams was described as a Christian aboriginal woman, married to Thomas Adams, stated that she had been in the native school, but did not often say her prayers. During proceedings it was noted she was neatly dressed in the costume of white women her class, her hair hanging about her head in rich profusion, she certainly appeared to considerable advantage; and although she expressed herself in the idiom of her tribe, her ideas were wonderfully clear and distinct.

After the Court case Mary Ann Adams was still living in the area, her land being Section 346 comprising eighty-one acres. Protector of Aborigines, Matthew Moorehouse, advised her husband he had no power to sell or lease the land and he would lose the right to live there if Kudnarto died.

This is what happened, high-lighted in the TV program "Who do you think you are".

Part section map showing Mary Ann Adams - Kudnarto's section 346 in the Skillogalee.

In 1852 when Captain Lambert was tending cattle on the plains, oral history in the Lambert family said that an aboriginal lady assisted Mrs Lambert at the birth of a son, George Robert Lambert, in a tent by a spring of Long Gully Creek near Section 520, a few sections away from Mary Ann Adams Section 356 in the Skilly. According to the "Court case", the Adams lived in a house. The Lamberts thought it most likely that it was Mary Ann Adams "Kudnarto", her being the most assimilated aboriginal woman in the area, who assisted Mrs Lambert.

It was not uncommon for pioneers to live in a tent. The builder Robert Whitehead came to Auburn in 1855 and his son was born in a tent on lot 18 Section 262 (where the old corn store barn is as Studio Liotis today).

Today's comparison would be living in a caravan until your house is built.

Fire Advice

FIRE DANGER SEASON

landowner responsibilities

As Fire Danger Season approaches, we'd like to offer a friendly reminder about your responsibilities as a landowner under the Fire and Emergency Services Act 2005.

In the Mid North district, the Fire Danger Season typically begins on either November 1st or 15th. In preparation, from 1 October the Council's Fire Prevention Officers will be inspecting properties for excessive grass, weeds, or undergrowth that could pose a fire risk.

To help keep our community safe, we ask for your cooperation in reducing potential fire hazards on your property. Taking early action can help avoid the need for formal enforcement by the Council and significantly reduce the risk to your home and the wider community.

Here's what you need to know:

- All property owners must take reasonable steps to prevent fires. As a general rule, we recommend any grass, weeds, and flammable undergrowth should be kept below 10 cm throughout the Fire Danger Season.

For properties 0.5 hectare or smaller: we recommend the entire property must be cleared.

For properties larger than 0.5 hectare we recommend you:

- Maintain a 20-metre fire break around any dwelling.
- Maintain a 5-metre fire break around other buildings and structures.
- Maintain a 5-metre fire break along all property boundaries.

We appreciate your attention to this important matter and your efforts to help protect our community.

If you have any questions or need further information, please feel free to contact the CFS at 1300 362 361 or Clare & Gilbert Valleys Council's Fire Prevention Officer at 8842 6400.
